Description	12 bottles of Chateau Haut-Pommarede 2014 Graves (owc). Plus VAT
Tasting Notes	Graves - Gold Medal 60% Cabernet Sauvignon and 40% Merlot An exceptional domain, registered in the Charter of the 13th century! Tasting notes :A beautiful garnet red color. A very expressive nose, with vanilla and roasted notes, revealing aromas of ripe black fruits. A fruity palate, full and round in attack, supported by melted and harmonious tannins. An elegant wine, full of charm! Well-known owner of Graves (Vieux Château Gaubert, Grand Bourdieu, Haut-Pommarède), where he operates a hundred hectares, Dominique Haverlan has expanded into pessac-Léognan with the acquisition in 2004 of Ch. Civrac-Lagrange and by Ch. Pontet-Cailou. The opinion of the Guide Hachette des Vins The intense color suggests a wine of character. On the bouquet, the aging imposes powerful vanilla and roasted notes (coffee), revealing aromas of ripe black fruits. The fruit asserts itself in a full and round attack on the palate, supported by melted and harmonious tannins. A gourmet and elegant set.
